

FOUR NATIONS SEND WARSHIPS TO SHANGHAI

MOVE AS NEUTRAL SHIPS TO PROTECT FOREIGN INTEREST

United States Sends Nine Destroyers and Japan, Great Britain, France Despatch Parts of Asiatic Fleet—Chinese are Told That Naval Battle is Not to Be Tolerated

SHANGHAI, Sept. 3. (AP)—Sporadic firing was heard, but no actual engagement was seen by a messenger who reached Shanghai today from Quinsan. Traveling thru the country where the forces of the rival Tuchungs general Lu Hung-Hsiang of Chekiang and General Chi Shieh-Yuan of Kiangs, are facing each other, the messenger saw many well uniformed soldiers equipped with new guns and many field pieces, large bodies of northern troops were moving towards Shanghai and the belief exists that extensive fighting is probable today.

Sections of the railway are torn up. The messenger, leaving Quensin in the evening travelled all night. He was seized many times and stripped of all his belongings, including his messages. He suffered slight injury at the hands of soldiers with whom the whole country, he says, is alive. Chinese Red Cross units from Shanghai are establishing bases near Quensin and Liuho.

The so-called Shanghai independent fleet which is supporting the Tuchan of Chekiang including the cruiser Haichow and half a dozen non-descript craft ranging from gunboats downward, is anchored in the Whangpoo, opposite Kiangnan arsenal which is one of the objectives of the northerner. The Fufu war craft, supporting the north, is reported in the Chusan Archipelago off the coast southeast of Shanghai in tending there to intercept any aid Chang Tao-Lin, the war lord of Manchuria, might dispatch to Hanchow by sea.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Naval forces of the United States, Japan, Great Britain and France, kept for patrol work in Asiatic waters are being assembled at Shanghai, China. Some already are there and others are proceeding to that port, moving as neutral ships but prepared to act swiftly in the event they are called upon to protect their respective nationals, commercials and trade interests, now menaced by danger of hostilities between military forces commanded by two provincial governors.

The diplomatic agents of the four governments already have advised the Peking foreign office "that the idea of a naval battle in the greatest harbor of the east was unthinkable and could not be tolerated," pointing out that the Shanghai waters constitute one vast harbor in which the ships of every nation float and that the present status of affairs presents a situation that cannot be regarded with equanimity by them.

Admiral Thomas Washington, commander in chief of the Asiatic squadron and Edward Bell, charge of the legion in Peking, both reported today to the Washington government on the situation at Shanghai.

Admiral Washington said nine destroyers, the Borie, Smith Thompson, Tracy, Hubert, J. D. Evans, Preble, Pruitt, Penguin and Whipple had been dispatched from the summer base at Chefoo to Shanghai and in addition, the gunboat, Isabel, flagship of the river patrol had been ordered from Kiuchang to Shanghai.

No mention, however, was contained in these despatches as to what ships the other three powers now have at Shanghai, or have ordered there. It is known, however, that the Peking diplomats representing the four great powers are acting in unison in the Shanghai matter and will be, or are, represented there now by vessels of their respective naval forces, selected for that duty from the various Asiatic squadrons.

Mr. Bell, reporting on the conference he and the other diplomatic officials held in Peking with Dr. Koo, the foreign minister declared that while it was their desire to remain strictly neutral and not to interfere with Chinese international wars, the diplomats had made it clear to the Chinese minister, that a battle between the forts at Woosung and the Nanking navy such as was threatened, would endanger the ships of all nations crowded in Shanghai waters and would not be tolerated.

The diplomatic agents had notified Dr. Koo in previous conversations of the determination of their governments to use such means as were available to afford requisite protection to foreign residents and to their trade and properties in or near Shanghai.

DEMOCRATS OUST KLAN DELEGATES TO CONVENTION

Platform Presented Strong Against Invisible Empire

CAPITOL, AUSTIN, Texas, Sept. 1. (AP)—Proclaiming no quarter for the Ku Klux Klan, framing a platform which denounced the Klan and declared for strict economy in government and according complete recognition of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson as the Democratic nominee for governor, the state Democratic convention went thru vociferous sessions here today with the Ferguson element in absolute and audible control. The permanent organization was effected by election of Joseph Weidom Bailey, former United States senator, chairman and Joe Burkett of Eastland, secretary.

The day was crowded with bitter denunciation of the Klan and its methods, with heated oratory, climaxed by a masterful appeal of Senator Bailey for peace, and marked by warm acclamation for Mrs. Ferguson and her husband, James E. Ferguson, who, with their daughters, sat on the speaker's platform throughout the day.

To be certain that the convention would be 100 percent anti-Klan, all Klan delegations were ousted and every attempt of the Klan delegates to place their friends on important committees was decisively defeated by election of substitute committeemen favorable to the convention majority. In this manner committee members favorable to the anti-Klan element from the fourth district composed of Orange, Jefferson, Liberty and Hardin counties, and from the thirteenth district, were seated. A bitter fight over the Dallas county committee selections, brought former Governor O. B. Colquitt and Lieutenant Governor Davidson into the fray attempting vainly to stop the procedure. In every instance Klan delegates and committeemen were seated.

The petition set forth that Hansel and his wife joined the House of David on April 22, 1921, and remained members until December 28, 1920. They took the vows of the sect, which, the petition said, required each member to agree to give to the association absolutely, not only all they possessed, but every matter or thing which at any time or hereafter they may have or claimed to be due them.

The petition continues, Hansel and his wife were awarded $21,078 by the United States district court for the western district of Michigan and the award was sustained by the United States circuit court of appeals.

The petition continues, Hansel and his wife were awarded $2,822 when they took the vow and five years later gave up $1,995 which was inherited from a relative.

When the Hansels quit the order they filed suit for the recovery of property and remuneration for their labors during the years they were members of the organization. They also brought charges of fraud and immorality against the order. In a brief supporting the petition, counsel for the House of David, argued that the application was justified on the ground that the decision of the Michigan court was not in harmony with decisions of the United States supreme court and that it would have far-reaching effect on all religious or benevolent orders and permit property of an organization used for humane, charitable and religious purposes to be called in question at the caprice of any member.

Miss Ricart also was a passenger on the ship on which Firpo came to the United States for his fight with Wills early in the summer, but her passport showed her destination to be Cuba, with a stop over to change ships. Although she did not apply for admission to this country at that time, she was questioned by immigration officials at Ellis Island before Firpo was permitted to land.

Ma Ferguson is likely to wonder what has become of the chirality of the south before this campaign is over.

Disease costs America 3000 million dollars a year and other civilized countries according, claims Sir David C. Bruce. He's figuring only the loss through people being "laid up" from work by illness.

About seven years at this rate would balance the national debt. Unfortunately, there seems no big-scale relief. As fast as we conquer one disease, nature sends new ones. Nerve maladies are replacing conquered fevers.

Over three and a half times as many rifles were manufactured in our country last year as in 1921. This isn't alarming for crooks cannot easily tote rifles without being detected.

But the increasing sale of pistols is dangerous — about four million dollars worth last year. We are not likely to get crime any way near control until the sale of "rags" is curbed, especially by mail order. Imprisonment for carrying a concealed or concealable weapon, with no mush-hearted paroles, would prevent a lot of murders.

RADIO CONTROL
The third national radio conference, called by Secretary Hoover to meet in Washington Sept. 30, will discuss matters of interest to every person interested in radio, including a great army of amateurs and mere listeners.

The great problem is to make broadcasting more effective. Various means are suggested for this purpose. Present wave-lengths may be changed to avoid interference among stations using wave-lengths too close together. There may be a greater use made of shorter wave-lengths or high frequencies, which are now giving remarkable results in experimental work. Broadcasting stations may be re-classified and many of them discontinued. Means may be found for eliminating a good deal of the electrical interference from outside sources.

conditions here by comparison with pre-war days. Again the president used the slogan that what America needs is "common sense government."

Then he went on to forcefully declare that he is not in favor of a government controlled by corporations nor by banks, business, farming interests, nor by labor. It was a very convincing message, certain to bring results on election day from those in the ranks of labor who really think and will not permit themselves to be led away by the vagaries suggested by some political leaders; nor influenced by the fancied wrongs suggested by others.

BETTER BABIES.

With the increase of knowledge of childhood and the growth of scientific methods of caring for children of tender age, there is an increasing urge for conferences such as is being held this week at the county fair grounds. Better babies are essential to a better future generation, which can create a better civilization.

Those who take their children to the baby show should think of more than a possible prize. They should not be disappointed if the kiddies show certain imperfections, but should desire to know such defects that they may the more speedily remedy them. These conferences are held, not only to honor the babies that are already scoring high, but also to pave the way for making better babies of those not so perfect.

Never was so much attention paid to children as now and it is good that this is so. A neglected child population may result in most anything but what is most desirable. Weeds grow in a garden that receives no care, and human weeds are just as apt to spring from wrong environment, neglect of physical care of children, or lack of mental and moral training.

METHODISTS TO MEET IN BLOOMINGTON

Centennial Conference Will Open
There Sept. 10th—Central Conference in Normal at Same Time—Several Changes Likely in Jacksonville District

(By C. R. Morrison)

The program for the 101st session of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church has been issued. The date is Sept. 10, 1924, and the place of meeting is First church, Bloomington. Bishop John F. McDowell, who for eight years was the resident bishop of the Chicago area, is assigned as president of this session. The Central Illinois Conference also meets at the same time in the adjoining city of Normal, with the new resident Bishop Edwin H. Hughes presiding. There will be many features in common, joint sessions, pageants, banquets, lectures besides the regular business sessions and laymen's organization.

Bloomington is a charming residential and commercial center, and is the seat of the Illinois Wesleyan university, which with its sister city of Normal, where the State Normal attracts hundreds of young people annually of the state and adjoining states, for educational opportunities.

One Hundred Years Ago

One hundred years ago, on Oct. 23, 1824, the Illinois Conference, which was a part of the Missouri Conference and embraced portions also of Indiana as well as Illinois, was organized at the home and on the farm of loyal Methodist in St. Clair county, by the name of Tom Padfield. As was common in those days, the Conference held afternoon and evening evangelistic services and hundreds of laymen and settlers come to attend these camp meetings. Bishop Roberts presided, but there were present also Bishop McKendree and Soule. There was a joint session of the Missouri Conference, which had received from the General Conference in the spring before, authority to divide into the Illinois and Missouri Conference, but the total number of preachers were recorded as present was small, only 32. John Scripps was elected secretary. The total number of men who have served as secretary to the present is 21. Dr. James Leaton served eight years and Rev. F. B. Madden served 15 years and had the additional honor of election to the last General Conference as a delegate.

Program Details

Beginning with Tuesday evening preliminary service Dr. C. E. Guthrie, general secretary of the Epworth League, will address a union meeting of both conference in the new gymnasium of the Illinois Wesleyan university. The next afternoon, there will be another union meeting of the two conferences, held at the same place, in the interest of the newly organized effort succeeding the five year Centenary movement, known as "The World Service"—Dr. R. J. Wade of Chicago will conduct this joint session. Thursday afternoon in the First Church auditorium, Dr. Dan B. Brummitt, editor of the "Northwestern Christian Advocate" will conduct a forum on "Church Publicity." In the evening, back to the gymnasium, where a lecture will be given before both conferences by Bishop Hughes on "The Children of the Mans." This is the annual pay lecture to assist the local churches of Normal and Bloomington in defraying the expenses of the two conferences.

Friday afternoon, the Centennial celebration will occur in the gymnasium, Bishop Hughes presiding. Dr. A. S. Chapman of Jacksonville will speak on "The Pioneers." Dr. S. H. Whitlock of Peoria will tell of the "Giants in Those Days," and Dr. John H. Ryan of Pontiac will speak on the theme of "An Educational Review."

This will be followed by an address by President Wm. J. Davidson of the Ill. Wes. university on the "Contribution of the Conference to Great Causes." In the evening of Friday, Sept. 12 at 5 o'clock will occur the 17th annual educational banquet at the Consistory temple, Dr. W. S. Bovard, D. New York City, secretary of the Board of Education, acting as toastmaster with the following program: "Builders of the State," by Governor Charles S. Deneen of Chicago; "Builders of Methodism" by Bishop Wm. F. McDowell; "Builders of Education" by State Superintendent F. G. Blair, of Springfield; "Rulers of Life" by Bishop E. H. Hughes of Chicago. Saturday evening at 8 o'clock on the university campus will occur the banquet; "One Hundred Years of Illinois Methodism" prepared by Miss Mattie Simmonds. Sunday will be full of religious interest. Dr. Galeener and S. H. Whilcock will lead the Conference Love Feast followed by the Centennial Sermon by Bishop McDowell.

At 2:30 Chaplain Wm. T. Beadles of the Soldiers Home in Quincy will preach his Semi-Centennial Ordination Sermon. In the evening a Rally Service of Methodist Men will take place in the university gymnasium—Monday closing business session. Reading the appointments.

The Past Year

The closing of the conference year, will furnish opportunity to review a year of devoted service and heroic achievement. The death of Rev. W. S. Phillips, Rev. Wm. F. Pitner, Rev. J. M. Goodspeed, will be noted with sorrow, as they were types of men memorable in the history of the itinerary. Two preachers widows are also in the list of crowned servants of the most high: Mrs. G. W. Dungan of Jacksonville, and Mrs. A. E. Wanless of Danville.

The year has not been marked by special advancement because of depression in agricultural circles, which in turn disturbed every other enterprise. The adjustment of church, college and superannuate financial affairs resulting from the Bi-Conference campaign of a year and few months ago, promises well for the coming year. College enrollment and excellent work done at Bloomington and Jacksonville is a cause of elation and congratulation.

Changes

It is a matter of considerable interest and speculation as to adjustment in pulpit supply for the coming year. First, the late general conference among its progressive measures limited the term of district superintendency to six years, which applies to W. D. Fairchild of the Mattoon district. Then there are the following men turning to the pastoral service after a year or more of service elsewhere: Theodore Kemp, J. C. Nate, B. F. Shipp, R. F. McDaniels and J. L. Settles. Rumor has it that Dr. Fairchild and E. G. Sandmeyer of First Church, Urbana, may change places.

Others say that the fine business skill of Dr. Fairchild may find a field with Dr. H. C. Gibbs in managing the fund of nearly a million dollars in the Retired Ministers Endowment. It is known that C. M. Duncan of the Bloomington district will aid Dr. Hanmer of the Educational Endowment during the coming year and that Dr. Nate is suggested as his successor. Rev. W. F. Wilson of Bement will retire at this conference and make his home in Florida, and the church has approached Robt. F. McDaniels to become its pastor. Further changes are also reported; three changes in the Jacksonville district, paying from $1,300 to $1,800 per year and parsonage are to be opened up (according to advertisement in the church papers) for new men. Much of the preliminary work of pulpit supply has been done and yet all of it is contingent. Dr. H. A. Keck of First Church, Champaign, has declined a very insistent appeal to supply the Foundry Church, Washington, D. C., one of the three outstanding churches of Methodism in that city. His refusal to accept an appointment to Omaha, when Dr. (now Bishop) Titus Lowe was elected to the office of Missionary Board Secretary, show his standing in the general church. With the fine program before it, and the interest in the changes listed at the coming Centennial session of Illinois Conference is looked forward to with great interest.

Two Wounded

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—A tip to Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad officials tonight prevented a holdup of the Golden State Limited at Meade, Kansas. Deputy sheriffs boarded the train at Fowler, a few miles east of Meade, and fought off three masked men who boarded the train at the latter stop.

In the shooting that followed two of the deputy sheriffs were wounded; one of the bandits was captured and the others escaped into the darkness. Employees aboard the train believed that other bandits were lying in wait alongside the train as an automobile sped away from the scene as the shooting started.

Information regarding the attempted robbery was received at the telegraph office of the general headquarters of the Rock Island Lines here. The Golden State Limited left Chicago at 6:30 p.m., Monday.

Topeka, Kans., Sept. 2.—The note which tipped off officials as to the holdup of the Rock Island train at Meade, Kansas, tonight was found in a garage at Rossdale, 18 miles west of Topeka, last night by the garage proprietor shortly after three strangers traveling in an automobile had stopped for gasoline.

officials here familiar with conditions in China to an intense rivalry which has existed to their knowledge for a year or more between Generals Chi Hsioh-Yuan and Lu Yung-Hsiang, military governors respectively of Kiangsu and Chekiang, adjoining provinces. A conflict between them, it is feared, would tend to throw other provincial forces into the struggle, and it is said, might result possibly in general warfare in China.

The question at issue between the two provincial leaders is said to resolve itself practically into a contest between them for military control of Shanghai. That city is located in Kiangsu province over which General Chi holds military control as governor. General Ho Feng-Lin, defense commissioner of Shanghai, however, is related to General Lu, governor of Chekiang. It is for control of this, officials here understand, that the two governors are now threatening conflict.

Shanghai, Sept. 2. (AP)—The Shanghai volunteer corps and the Shanghai defense unit which includes American cavalry and infantry, six armored cars, field artillery, a machine gun company and the British light horse, are under emergency orders to assume posts at the boundaries of the settlement in the event of a general advance of the Chekiang forces upon Shanghai. In addition large forces are available from the foreign ships now in the river for the defense of foreign property making it possible to complete a cordon around the city if necessary.

RUMOR OF HARM TO JUDGE CAVERLEY IS CAUSE OF CONCERN

Is Found Safe After Report ed Injured at Hands of Crank

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Judge John R. Caverly today requested and received a special transcript of the coroner's report and the testimony of Dr. Joseph Springer in the Frank murder case. What use he intended to make of the transcript he would not say, altho it was recalled that State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe had inferred, at the hearing, that the murdered boy's body might have been misused before it was hidden away.

All but 500 pages of the voluminous record of the hearing to determine the punishment to be meted out to Nathan Leopold Jr. and Richard Loeb, have been examined, the judge said today.

Rumors that spread about the city to the effect that Judge Caverly had met with harm at the hands of a crank were received with some apprehension at the county building.

They telephoned Mrs. Caverly, causing her to hurry to a cemetery where the judge was attending the funeral of a priest. She found him safe and well.

Judge Caverly today officially gave up his robes as chief justice of the criminal courts of Cook county. He will serve in the future on the divorce bench of the superior court.

Menus for a Family

Tested by SISTER MARY

Breakfast—Apple sauce, cooked wheat cereal, soft boiled eggs, thin toast, butter, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Lamb chops, baked potatoes, stewed tomatoes, whole wheat bread and butter, dates.

Dinner—Roast of veal, macaroni with cheese, lima beans, celery and cabbage salad, prune whip, whole wheat bread and butter, milk, coffee.

Drop macaroni into rapidly boiling salted water and boil 20 minutes. When tender and the water is nearly all boiled away pour over milk, dot with butter and bake 25 minutes in a moderate oven. Serve the grated cheese in a bowl and let each person help himself. This makes it possible to regulate the amount of cheese served to the children. One teaspoonful of grated cheese stirred into 2 tablespoonsfuls of hot macaroni should be served to the 4-year-old.

This luncheon is planned exclusively for the children who come home from school for their noon meal. Meat once a day should be provided for children from 4 years on. The meat should be broiled, boiled or roasted, never fried, and lamb, beef and chicken and fish are the preferred meats. Two tablespoons of very finely cut, broiled lamb chop will be enough for the youngest member of the family, and a whole broiled chop for the older children.

The heartiest meal of the day should be planned for noontime, as far as the children are concerned. Nourishing, easily digested food must be provided for their evening meal. This makes it necessary that the dinner plan to satisfy a hungry man contain a light, nourishing dessert, an easily digested protein, fat and carbohydrate.

The macaroni and cheese suggested in place of potatoes with the roast is a happy choice for grownups as well as children.

Children under 8 should not eat the salad unless it is very finely minced and slightly seasoned. Their dinner is macaroni and cheese, lima beans, whole wheat bread and butter, milk and prune whip.

Any child under 13 will be better off without the veal for his dinner.

CHAIN OF EVIDENCE AROUND KID MCCOY BECOMING TIGHTER

Maid Testifies He Called at Mors Home Seeking Husband

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 2.—The chain of evidence about "Kid" McCoy former prize ring idol, charged with the murder of Theresa Moore, divorced wife of Albert A. Mors, wealthy antique dealer, was tightened late today in the opinion of district attorney's operatives, by a formal statement from Miss Mary Moore, maid of Mors' home at the time of the killing.

In her statement the maid declared that McCoy had visited the Mors home late during the night of August 12, before Mrs. Mors body was discovered in the apartment she and McCoy had been occupying in another part of the city.

She said McCoy was disheveled and nervous and that he asked for Mors.

McCoy appeared in court today and pleaded not guilty to one charge of murder, three of assault with intent to commit murder, and four of robbery. The murder trial was set for October 20.

The robbery and assault charges grew out of a shooting orgy said to have been staged by McCoy at and near the Mors antique shop after Mrs. Mors' death.

The former fighter seemed greatly relieved today by the news that his mother, who had been seriously ill with heart trouble, was in an improved condition.

DAIRY FEED MILL IN MILWAUKEE DESTROYED

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 2.—The dairy feed plant of the Charles A. Krause Milling company lay in ruins tonight after an all day fire in which one man was seriously injured, several hundred endangered and which caused a loss estimated at $1,500,000. An explosion, believed to have been caused by grain dust, caused the blaze.

The injured man was badly burned about face and body but is expected to recover. Of the buildings that were razed one was eight stories high, one six and two of them three stories. The fire may burn in the grain for several days it is said.

The Krause company owns one of the largest corn milling plants in the world. It manufactures corn oil as well as horse and dairy feed. There were 60,000 gallons of corn oil in the mill and it lent added fury to the fire.

TILDEN DECISIVELY CONQUERS JOHNSON

Wins National Singles Tennis Championship for Fifth Straight Year

FORREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 2. (AP)—William T. Tilden II, of Philadelphia decisively conquered William M. Johnston of San Francisco and won the national singles championship for the fifth straight year. The scores of their final round match were 6-1, 9-7, 6-2.

It took Tilden 58 minutes to batter his little opponent into submission and establish not only his pre-eminent position among American racquet stars, but recognition also as the world's champion, for he emerged triumphant from one of the greatest international fields ever gathered together.

Except for a spirited rally in the second set which he forced to decide several times and even threatened to capture, Johnston was outstreaked, outgeneraled and outclassed. It was the fifth time Tilden has vanquished Johnston in the six consecutive years they have met in the national championships and although he allowed the Californian games last year, the titleholder's victory today was as convincing as any previous triumph. Tilden and Johnston have been finalists seven times each in their careers. But where "Big Bill" now has been victorious five times Johnston has tasted defeat in the same ratio. Since his second and last triumph in 1919, when he defeated Tilden the Californian has made five attempts to come back only to be repelled each time by the Philadelphia wizard.

In 1920 and 1922 Johnston forced Tilden to five furious sets before yielding to the greater resourcefulness and stamina of his opponent. In 1921 the Californian was put out in the fourth round by Tilden, who then defeated Wallace Johnson in the finals.

Last season Tilden was victorious in straight sets.

Today Tilden was the master rising to super-tennis of the type of which only he can exhibit to gain a triumph, stamping him beyond the last lingering doubt as the world's greatest—one of the most dominating figures any branch of sport has ever known.

A Jacksonville Citizen After Thinking It Over Reaches Right Decision

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 23, 1924.

To Secretary,
Cigarmakers Union,
City.

Dear Sir.

I wish to commend the advertising which has been done in recent months in the interest of Jacksonville-made cigars, and presume that this has been done jointly by the manufacturers and yourselves. This action on your part is a move in the right direction, and I trust is proving a profitable one.

I have been a smoker for a great many years and must admit that I have been consuming a brand manufactured elsewhere than in our fair city, and it was a good cigar, too. But after watching your ads from week to week and noting what happened to the cigar industry here, how that many men were out of work due to falling off in sales,

I began to see a light—began to understand just what this was meaning in the economic life of Jacksonville.

Arriving at such understanding it didn't take me long to come to a decision—smoke a Jacksonville cigar and do my bit toward helping keep in employment those who were helping to keep the city I love on the map; and, furthermore, to bring this matter to the attention of any erring friend on every occasion.

I quickly found a cigar that was the exact counterpart of the brand I had been accustomed to, and will say that it's proving an even better one. (Won't say what make it is as that wouldn't be fair to the others listed in your advertisements; however I've smoked a few of about every brand made in this city and they are all pretty darn good).

In closing I can't help but take just a little rap at the manufacturers for the situation in which you fellows found yourselves, and I hope the truth of the matter will be seen and I be pardoned—it's this: Whose fault has it been, and to some extent is, right now, that the hundreds of smokers of "outside cigars" here in Jacksonville have been left almost entirely in the dark with respect to this splendid industry and its output? Why aren't Jacksonville cigars advertised individually, the brands made a by-word among smokers?

What you are doing is fine and no doubt has converted many already, but many more can be converted to "Jacksonville way" and the cigar industry made to surpass your fondest dreams.

Wishing you all the success in the world, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

V. E. T. SMOKER.

ground but leave some leaves on stalk as leaves are necessary for proper ripening of plant. Plant roots three to four feet apart and do not crowd with other plants. Phlox makes a good filler for beds while peonies are small and ground shows bare between them. The very small divisions at reduced prices make it possible for all flower lovers to have some of the very high rating and high priced varieties, but these small divisions should be planted with especial care, and must not be allowed to suffer from drought the first year, and of course will not produce typical blooms as soon as the larger divisions.

"A light application of bone meal after plants bloom will increase growth of plant and size of next year's blooms, and if you are an enthusiast, and if you aren't one now you soon will be, try pinching off all side buds when buds appear in spring that all strength of the stalk may go to main bloom. Just before blooming time, soak roots thoroughly with water to which has been added a little cow manure or a pinch of nitrate of soda. The nitrate burns roots easily and is dangerous unless used in very small quantity, but brings quick results and very fancy blossoms. You will have beautiful flowers year after year without any of these extra helps, but should you enter a competitive exhibit with your blossoms, these suggestions would help you win the prizes."

"Given considerable sunshine, fair soil and planted where they will not be robbed of all nutrient and moisture by roots of large shrubs and trees, your peonies will give you joy through years to come."
